

	IN THE TENT	IN THE CENTRE	ON THE GROUNDS
10:00	OPENING CEREMONIES Diane Godbout, 7 th THS President Mayor Mitch Panciuk, Belleville Bay of Quinte MPP Todd Smith	Guided tours of the library and archives throughout the day.
10:15 – 11:00	QUINTE LIVING CENTRE CONCERT BAND 	DISCOVERING LAND RECORDS  Don Craighead has been a volunteer at MAGRC for the past 15 years and has completed dozens of projects, including digitizing & indexing our Hastings County land records. In this session, Don will share what family researchers can learn (a lot!) from examining land records.	CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES
11:15 – 12:00	The Quinte Living Centre Concert Band is a volunteer concert band directed by John Monahan in Belleville Ontario. This concert band performs music for the community in a variety of venues, throughout the year, playing a wide range of musical styles. Who knows what musical treats they have in store for us!	HUFF GENEALOGY The volunteers at MAGRC often help family researchers with tracing their ancestors and in this session Diane Godbout & research specialist Larry Carmichael will share the genealogy of a notable County family – the Huffs. Were there any surprises in our research? Join us to find out.
12:00	CAKE CUTTING CEREMONIES Diane Godbout, 7 th THS President Mayor Steve Ferguson, Prince Edward County Deputy mayor Jim Alyea, Quinte West It wouldn't be a celebration without cake!		HUNGRY? Chicos Caribbean Crisps will be on hand with some great food. Yum!

	IN THE TENT	IN THE CENTRE	ON THE GROUNDS
1:00 – 2:00	SEVENTH TOWN BAND Seventh Town is an acoustic celtic/folk group based in Prince Edward County, Ontario. The band features musicians Martin Smit on guitar and vocals, Trisha Elliott on vocals and tin and low whistles, Meghan Balogh on fiddle and vocals and Fraser Hardman on bass and vocals. Seventh Town draws its musical inspiration from traditional and contemporary folk songs, reels, and jigs from Irish, Scottish, and Canadian traditions. We couldn't resist inviting them to perform as we quite like their name.	 BUILDING A CASE FOR YOUR UE DESIGNATION Angela & Peter Johnson UE have been involved with genealogy since the beginning of the 1980s and Peter since 1968. They have a long history of activity in the UELAC both at the branch level and nationally. Currently Peter is President of Bay of Quinte Branch UELAC and both are Co-Dominion Genealogists at the national level. Angela is Chair of Quinte Branch OGS and Peter is a past Chair. Both have Loyalist roots in Ameliasburgh Township and are recognized for their work and seminars helping Loyalist descendants gain their designation as United Empire Loyalists.	Children's activities continue
2:15 – 3:00	 Photo by Gerry O'Brien	Guided tours continue throughout the afternoon.	GRAVESTONE MAKEOVER  Since 2004 to the present, Hugh Heal has donated his time and personal funds to clean, repair, restore, replace and restand more than 650 marble monuments in the Quinte area, mostly in Prince Edward County. In this session, Hugh will demonstrate some of the techniques he uses to bring gravestones back to life.
4:00	The party's over ...		